A few lines my friends...

to say that this coming Sunday there will be only ONE worship service at 11:00 so that all may be a part of the election of church officers. This Sunday is also YOUTH SUNDAY where the youth will be leading us in all aspects of our worship. We will also be receiving this year's Confirmation Class into the membership of our church during the service. These young people have shared their statements of faith with the Session and come now ready to publically profess what they believe: Virginia Breece, Wallace Cameron, Claire Douglass, Hunter Mayo, Timothy Parnell Jr., Lauren Reames, Heavenly Young. We are certainly blessed to have these youth joining our church and we know that God is going to continue to bless their lives as they commit their lives to Him.

to remind you that immediately following the morning worship we will have a Congregational Meeting for the purpose of electing a new class of officers to the Session, class of 2013. Following our Manual of Procedure updated in 2008 and our Nominating Process, the Congregational Nominating Committee submits twelve names of those agreeing to serve if elected. From that number of twelve, the congregation will elect eight. Nominations can also be received from the floor. Be prayerful as you vote on this coming Sunday.

I continue to be grateful for your prayers and encouragement as together we move forward in faith in a purposeful and intentional way, serving Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior.

Your pastor and friend,

Mission News and Opportunity:

Congratulations

To Lauren Harper for recently being honored for her volunteer work at the Care Center. Volunteering since 1998, through her weekly visits to the center she has worked in the pharmaceutical area ordering prescriptions for "her" patients, helped with the golf tournament, serves on the Clinical Services Committee and is on the Board of Directors. The Dental Sterilization Room has been named in her honor.

To Lib McIntosh who received her fourth award at Carolina Highlands as an exceptional volunteer. Lib is always ready to lend a helping hand to anyone who has a need as well as assist the staff in any way that she can.

To The Highland Men who have taken on the ministry of serving breakfast at Operation In As Much once a month.

To Lenore Johnson for her faithful service to Interfaith Hospitality since the inception of Highland hosting families for Interfaith. This is truly a mission that reaches families in our community seeking a fresh start.

If you know of others in our church family who are serving in the name of Christ in the community please let Kelli, (485-2147), kelli@hpchurch.org know. Also if you know of Mission or Ministry opportunities for service let us know so that we can share them.

"As you have done it unto one of the least of these you have done it unto me." Jesus

Youth Sunday

Youth Sunday, May 23, 2010

Each year, for a few months, the youth of Highland Presbyterian prepare to take over almost every aspect of the worship service on one special Sunday.

Today is that Sunday. The Youth have planned, prepared and practiced, working hard to make this day inspiring and meaningful, not only to you, the congregation but also to God and His glory. We are so happy for and proud of our Youth, they've done a great job!

Youth Sunday is a great opportunity to participate in the life of Highland and to share our perspective with our church family. It also gives us a chance to show our faith outwardly and shine in His glory.
Allison Whitaker

Youth Sunday is a special time when the Youth can come together as one family of Christ and we can also shine and share our love for Christ
Scott Parnell

Youth Sunday is a very important event in the life of Highland Presbyterian Church. Every year there is one Sunday when the Youth have an opportunity to lead the church service. It is an eye-opening experience because we are able to get behind the scenes and learn the steps required to make a church service effective. We have a good time preparing for Youth Sunday, and it is very beneficial to us.
Luke Weaver

Confirmation Sunday, May 23, 2010
